—Let the birds "quail" with fear this week.

—Mr. D. J. Cresap went to Cincinnati this week.

—The war with Chili seems to have been a newspaper fake.

—Frank Mattox of Columbus was in our city on the Sabbath.

—Judge Owens will have a crowded house at his lecture, November 19.

—On another page we give the official vote of last election in Hocking county.

—Frank Rochester sold one of his elegant dogs last week. Consideration, $50.00.

—M. E. District Conference at the M. E. Church here next week beginning Tuesday.

—DIED, Nov. 9th, '91.—At his home in Logan, Mr. Will Westenhaver, of Typhoid fever.

—Harry Olmsted of Columbus joined the band of hunters from here on their quail expedition.

—A child of Thomas Whitcraft was buried Tuesday last. Death was caused by scarlet fever.

—Col. A. C. Sands and wife of Cincinnati are visiting their daughter Mrs. F. C. Rochester, here.

—The Council held regular session on last Tuesday evening. No business of importance was transacted.

—"Tony" of the Vinton Record must have enlarged his picture gallery, judging by the new samples in last issue.

—Col. J. A. Voris of Lancaster was in Logan Wednesday, attending to business as assignee of the Friener estate.

—The Republicans will endeavor to celebrate in Columbus Friday night. Sackcloth and ashes would be more appropriate.

—No "Tony," no Democratic speeches made Republican votes in Vinton, it was yourself that made the alleged big change.

—Noah Young who was seriously hurt by a pony a few weeks since at the stock sale, is recovering but still confined to his bed.

—Mr. Rufe Karshner has been appointed to a position as Attendant at the Athens Asylum. He is an excellent man for the place.

—Last Tuesday, the first day of the quail season was very damp. Bands of hunters went out from here, and came back slightly water soaked.

—Gen. Jim Clark has had his pension increased to $1200 per month. Gen. Jim was a gallant soldier and well deserving of the liberal allowance the government grants him.

—Two years ago there were fifty vacant houses in Logan. Since then over a hundred building lots have been sold, not a vacant house in the town, and thirty new houses erected within the past year.

—We are glad to state that the claims against the Friener property have all been adjusted and all mortgages canceled. Those who have bought property, or propose doing so find the property unencumbered by mortgage of record.

—The country postmasters recently met in Columbus for the purpose of effecting a state organization. Mr. Sewell Bennett of Kittington, our county, was one of the leading men of the convention and was selected as Secretary, and placed on other important committees.

—The United States Circuit Court will convene in Columbus on December 15th. The jurors from this county are Lafayette Eggleston, John C. Butler, Albert Wright. No better selection for intelligence and impartial judgment could have been made. The term of court will last from three to six weeks.

—On Thursday night Nov. 19, Judge S. N. Owens will deliver his famous lecture on "Some Court Scenes." This is the third lecture in the High School Course and no one should miss hearing Judge Owens. Every one who was so fortunate as to hear him last year on "The Forum in Literature" is very anxious to hear him again. Remember, Thursday night Nov. 19 at the Methodist Church.

—The Bankers of Ohio met in Columbus last week and organized a State Association. Mr. John Walker, President of the First Bank of Logan was selected as chairman of the committee to frame a Constitution and By Laws for the organization. Mr. Walker is one of the oldest and one of the most experienced bankers in the state and his selection for this important position in the Association is a compliment well deserved.

On last Tuesday, Col. Weldy and his Crown Prince Setter, accompanied by his Page Carl Bauer, took to the forests on a royal hunt for the untrifled game. Prince with unerring scent followed on the dewy leaves the trail of the game and as the affrighted marsupials leaped affrighted from cover, they met death from the muzzle of the Col's Smooth bore. The royal sport continued until the page boy was weary with burlesque capture.

The Sentinel desires to gratefully return thanks for the liberal donation laid on the editorial table.

The Falling Leaf

As autumn creeps upon us with its chilly winds, we can hear in the rustle of a falling leaf, a mysterious greeting. "Dominus vobiscum" and as it is the Lord was with us, as a nation and gave us a year of plenty; why not, let sixty millions of free Americans unite in one National vesper and give unto Him who knows our wants a National "Te Deum Laudamus?"

We have to stop at our various churches and ask: Is theology a somna ecclesiastica? Is orthodoxy a self righteousness? or is Christianity the "principio pro charitate?" i. e. "Love God with all thy heart and soul and thy neighbor as thyself."

Pretty hue the symbol of decay, thou falling leaf. Strange it is we come with thee at last. We all have our mission, our stage of action, our beauty, our demise. Our gray hair, like your golden hue is truly an adornment, which when laid away on yonder hill, will ripen for a glorious spring of resurrection. The shattered stalk, the tottering limbs from whence we come and fall. No, not it is all sown in corruption and we with thee, thou falling brother will rise in incorruption and immortality; where the tree of life is blooming and no more leaf is falling.

Ah, why should the spirit of mortals be proud, when we are doomed to fall. Why not prepare for autumn chill and ask ourselves: are we prepared for eternity's long sleep?

A tear must drop. A friend, a father, mother, we have left for thee thou falling leaf to mark their graves, in far off Europe's countries they sleep. A wooden cross, perhaps hence long decayed, we ask the pretty leaf to fill thy mission, fall gently on a mother's breast, that bore me once beneath her bosom; bear gently down upon that little mound, who keeps concealed a loving father's face; and when at last we too must fall, ah be so kind and true, and give me ever-green the symbol of eternal joy.

With most kind regards to our falling leaf and the readers of the Sentinel.

Your sympathetic servant,
J. L. YOUNKER

MILLER &amp; CASE.

Nov. 12, 2w.

—MARRIED: Geo. Till and Miss Josephine DeLong were married at Academic Post Office, Allen Co., Ind., last week. The young couple are visiting friends and relatives in Logan this week.

Let's reason together. Here's a firm, one of the largest of the country over, it has grown, step by step through the years to greatness—and it sells patent medicines—ugh!

—What's enough?—Tail a little—

This firm pays the newspapers good money (expensive work, this advertising) to tell the people that they have faith in what they sell, so much faith that if they can't benefit or cure they don't want your money. Their guarantee is not in infinite and relative, but definite and absolute—if the medicines don't help, your money is "on call."

Suppose every sick man and every feeble woman tried these medicines and found them worthless who would be the loser, you or they?

The medicines are Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," for blood diseases, and his "Favorite Prescription," for women's peculiar ills. If they toward health they cost $1.00 a bottle each. If they don't, they cost nothing!

Grand Excursion to Gallipolis O. Thursday, Nov. 12th, 1891.

For the Corner Stone laying of the Epileptic Asylum at Gallipolis on November 12th, the Columbus Hocking Valley and Toledo Rail way will run a special excursion train and sell round trip tickets at less than one fare rate, thus enabling everybody to attend at a very small expense. Free Steamboat rides to the beautiful Islands of the Ohio River. Public reception to Governor Campbell and Hon. Wm. McKinley Jr. both of whom will be present. Plenty of good music and a grand ball in the evening; those desiring may remain until next day.

For particulars call on Agent C. H. V. & T. R., or address W. H. Fisher, G. P. & T. A. Columbus, O.

Cheap Excursion Rate to the South.

If you are in search of health or wealth and happiness go south. The climate is charming and no better place can be found to spend the winter months than in Florida or Texas. The Great Buckeye Route offers many inducements to the traveler in the way of low rates and through car service. This is the only live traveling the central portion of the State of Ohio, connecting in the Union Station at Columbus, O., with lines leading to the south and south west. For rates to any point in the United States or Canada, write or call on Agent of the C. H. V. & T. R., or address W. H. Fisher, General Agent at Columbus, O.
